POLICY CONSIDERATIONS

The Tennessee General Assembly declares that the Tennessee Public Records Act ("TPRA") "shall be broadly construed to give the fullest possible access to public records." See Tenn. Code Ann. § 10-7-505(d). Accordingly, unless there is a clear exception provided in law, all public records of a governmental entity are to be open to Tennessee citizens for inspection.

<sup>1</sup> If all requested records do not have the same response, so indicate.

Records custodians must comply with the TPRA and their respective public records policies and rules. Tenn. Code Ann. § 10-7-506(a) grants records custodians the right to adopt and enforce reasonable rules governing the making of copies.

Adherence to the Model Public Records Policy developed by the Office of Open Records Counsel (“OORC”) is not mandatory. However, courts may consider adherence to guidance provided by the OORC in determining whether a denial of access to public records by a records custodian is willful. See Tenn. Code Ann. § 10-7-505(g). Additionally, adherence to the policies and guidelines of the OORC provides a safe harbor for records custodians. See the OORC’s Safe Harbor Policy.

- I. The TPRA authorizes a governmental entity to determine the following with respect to each entity’s public records policy:
  - A. Whether to respond to TPRA requests by persons who are not citizens of Tennessee;
  - B. Whether to require government-issued photo identification as a prerequisite to providing access to records;
  - C. Whether to require requests for copies to be in writing and on a specific form;
  - D. Whether to charge for copying and duplication costs, including labor, when requestors ask for copies or duplicates;
  - E. Whether to waive copying and duplication costs in certain circumstances; and
  - F. Whether to permit requestors to make copies or duplicates using their own devices, such as a cell phone camera. (Note that use of requestor-provided devices such as flash drives pose serious security concerns.)
- II. Prior to adopting a public records policy, a governmental entity should consider and determine the following:
  - A. Who or what is the “appropriate governing authority” responsible for approval of the policy as required by Tenn. Code Ann. § 10-7-503(g).
  - B. Who or what sub-entities or offices are to be covered by the policy.
  - C. Whether there are legal requirements, other than the TPRA, that require the governmental entity to provide public access to specific records.
  - D. What authority, other than the TPRA, exists for charging fees for copies and whether it is mandatory or discretionary?
    1. If no separate authority exists for duplication fees or copying fees, will fees be assessed for copies?
    2. Will labor be charged when it exceeds one (1) hour (or will the governmental entity use a higher threshold)?
    3. Will waivers be permitted, and who should have the authority to make the decision to waive fees?
  - E. Who, within the governmental entity, are “records custodians,” which are defined as “any office, official or employee of any governmental entity lawfully responsible for the direct custody and care of a public record” and whether there is a designated records officer or records archivist.

- F. What records the government entity creates or receives that are required by law or ordinance, or that occur in the transaction of official business, that would be subject to disclosure under the TPRA.
1. Are the records produced in physical or electronic format and where are they stored or maintained?
  2. If electronic, what capability exists to search and to securely electronically redact the records?
  3. If in physical form, how are the records filed or cross-referenced?
  4. If on microfilm, microfiche or other legacy formats, how are the records filed or cross-referenced? Is equipment available to access/read the records?
- G. What, if any, exemptions apply to the governmental entity's public records or the information in the records making them confidential.
- H. What means of communication exist for the public to communicate with the governmental entity.
- I. What are the governmental entity's existing policies on:
1. Government transparency;
  2. How to respond to TPRA requests, including what fees to charge;
  3. Records management, including:

    - b. Records made or received "off-site" or using personal devices; and
    - c. Monitoring of the accessibility and readability of records;
  4. Use of email and other electronic communication and social media;
  5. Use of personal devices in the work place;
  6. Securing of records upon the departure of an employee/official; and
  7. Disaster recovery and planning.
- J. What resources are available for compliance with the TPRA.
1. What space is, or will be, available to requestors for physical inspection of records?
  2. Is a secure computer terminal (that does not allow access to confidential records) available for public inspection of electronic records?
  3. What is the governmental entity's capability to duplicate records? If the entity does not have internal capability, are there existing contracts with vendors or available duplication services to respond promptly to requests?
  4. What staffing and funding is available?

- K. What the governmental entity has or provides that may contain or produce records accessible pursuant to the TPRA, including:
1. Portable electronic devices such as cell phones, laptops, or tablets;
  2. Voice mail;
  3. Email accounts;
  4. Websites; and
  5. Social media accounts, such as Facebook or Twitter.

1. How will the appointment be disclosed internally and externally?
  2. What authority exists to require records custodians to respond to the coordinator?
